Child Citizen Suffers for Months Before Released From Pain.

POISON STARTS FROM INJURY TO FINGER

Arm and Body Swells, Bringing Fearful Agony to Victim.

UTAH, Oct. 12.—Nels Anderson died a few days ago after a pain-torturing period of four months. He had a crack in the end of his finger. Something got into it, and the arm and finally the whole body swelled, and his suffering was terrible until he died.

CHILDREN'S SUITS

Mrs. Sidney H. Greer of Minneapolis dyes her children's suits once or twice a year until they are almost worn out. Mrs. Greer says they last just twice as long and always look fresh and new. She tells her experience on page 28 of the Diamond Dye Annual.

Diamond Dyes

They can be used in the home in hundreds of ways. They color anything any color and never crack or fade. They are a household necessity and a household economy. Only 10 cents at all drug stores. The Diamond Dye Annual and 45 samples of dyed cloth sent free.

FAIL TO GRASP SITUATION.

Some Sheepmen Buying Back Herds They Lately Sold.

RICHFIELD, Oct. 12.—Sheepmen in this part of the State are beginning to wonder how long the present upward and feverish condition of the sheep market will continue. Many who sold out earlier in the season are regretting their sale, and some who contracted their herds during the summer for fall delivery are buying them back at advanced prices.

Cannot Supply Demand.

There is a demand for rams this fall which cannot be supplied. Last year there was an overstock of rams at this time, and last spring some of the breeders had to ship the surplus away. Now they cannot be had at any price.

Range Extra Good.

David Wood, who has just returned from Arizona, where he trailed three big herds from part of the State, reports that the sheepmen are willing to pay all kinds of prices for good Merino stock, ranging from $4 to $5 per head. Mr. Wood found the ranges and deserts along the trail in the best condition ever known for this season of the year.

Pioneer Is Called.

SPRINGVILLE, Utah, Oct. 12.—Mrs. Mary M. Avery, one of the early settlers of this city, died yesterday after a lingering illness. Mrs. Avery was born April 17, 1827, and came to Utah in the early '50s.

Mrs. Martin Coffey, wife of James Coffey, died today after a long illness of paralysis. She was 60 years of age. The funeral will occur on Sunday. Mrs. Coffey leaves a husband, three sons and three daughters to mourn her loss.

WOODMEN OF THE WORLD, NOTICE.

Neighbors, you are hereby requested to attend the funeral services of our late neighbor, William Norris, to be held in the Eleventh ward meeting-house, corner of First South and Eighth East street, Sunday, October 15, 1905, at 12 o'clock, noon. Yours in L. H. & R. A. C. SADDLER, C. C. 53.

HAVE THE MORMON LEADERS DIVINE AUTHORITY?

By what authority do you come forth with your bold assertions? Is the question hurled at Mr. John H. Scott from all directions. I say unto you, by what authority do you men who profess to hold the divine priesthood cease to live and teach the celestial laws upon which alone the priesthood is predicated? What man among you who, if he saw a friend assault an innocent girl, would not go to the rescue? Would you wait until the authority of officers of the peace was authorized by the laws of nature and justice to interfere in behalf of injured innocence?

The professed priesthood of God who have all gone astray from the laws of equity upon which alone priesthood is predicated, all have a white of "Blessed are we when we are persecuted for righteousness' sake." They all deceive themselves with the idea that they are doing the Lord's will, while they have ignored and set aside the teaching and practice of the celestial laws which they were ordained to teach. We unto you hypocrites, for you pervert the ways of truth and justice, and ignore the cry of the oppressed whom you have brought out here with whose fleece you have clothed yourselves. You are they who justify yourselves before men, telling them that you have erected meeting-houses, etc., while at the same time the poor are starving spiritually and temporally. Is this the kind of Zion that obedience to the laws of God produces? How can you men blaspheme Deity by telling the people that you are loyal to His laws, and to the laws of the land? Does it not occur to you benighted minds that it is you who are fighting God when you cast out men who tell you the truth, when you are afraid to meet a mere boy upon a public stand, and when you take measures to prevent him spreading truth to others. You unto you, for you have bled upon the way of truth and justice, happiness and peace and those who would enter in, prevent. The publicans and the harlots will enter into the Kingdom of God before you do. The honest, the pure, the virtuous and refined, rich and poor, will come from the East and from the West and build up ideal cities of peace and refuge, while the children of the kingdom will be cast out as salt that hath lost its savor, only fit to be trodden under foot of men. Inasmuch as the church leadership has attributed the celestial laws to the works of the devil, and have ceased to teach and practice them, and since they have cast out those men who have drawn their attention to the fact that they have ceased to teach those laws which they were called and ordained to teach, and inasmuch as they have thus denied the truth of Mormonism before the whole world, it is only natural after all that they should be persecuted by the world, and it is very strange that they should be so small-minded as to believe that they are being persecuted for righteousness' sake.

The books and laws which these ravening wolves in sheep's clothing hold up to the world, state that the church funds are the common property of the whole church, for the use of those who teach and practice the written laws of the church; for the poor, the widow and the orphan, and for missionaries' families. And since the church authorities have told the people that the books containing the above standing law are of divine origin, they have absolutely proven themselves to have no claim upon one cent of church funds, and it is only a marvel that the world has not persecuted them more than they have done. For it is they who consume and dispose with the tithes of the people. It is they who lead the people astray since they admit that they do not teach and practice the celestial laws, which they were called and ordained to teach by precept and example. And it is they who are very careful to see that the poor, the widow and missionaries' families do not have equal claims upon the church funds according to their necessities. Therefore, they have absolutely proven themselves unworthy, usurpers, blasphemers and deceivers. And one would have thought that they would be ashamed in the face of these facts to stand up and tell the people that they are loyal to the laws of God and the land, and that they are very careful to see that the poor, the widow and missionaries' families do not have equal claims upon the church funds according to their necessities. And have they so little knowledge of the Bible and their own church works that they do not know that the obtaining of means under false pretenses is a penitentiary act?

Let me advise that they resign their offices to the servants of God, before the whole nation comes down upon them for their confessed abominations and outrage. I am instructed to announce to the people again that the Lord has appointed men to lead His people who will teach them equity and peace, and who will administer to the poor and needy from the church funds according to their necessities. And they desire that the people fully understand that the church funds are the common property of the whole church, and that all members have equal claims upon said funds according to their necessities, although the Desert News stated the contrary on August 28, 1905. And again, let the people gather at the tabernacle next Sunday, October 15, to decide as to whether they will sustain truth or falsehood. They have their option. In the cause of Truth and Liberty, JOHN H. SCOTT, Salt Lake City, October 13, 1905.

SOCIETY

One of the most beautiful afternoon affairs of the season was given yesterday by Mrs. Richard A. Kees in honor of her guest, Mrs. Robert Barkley of Helena, Mont. The hall was bright with a profusion of crimson chrysanthemums and dotted palms. White was the color chosen for the decorations in the parlor. Tall vases of white chrysanthemums and dahlias were artistically and effectively combined with garlands of plumosa. Red carnations were used in the dining-room. The tally and score-cards were daintily imported German cards. The prizes at bridge were awarded to Mrs. Thomas Kearns, Mrs. Joseph Gallagher and Mrs. Kees. Assisting the hostess and the guest of honor during the afternoon were Mrs. M. R. Stewart, Mrs. Pick, Mrs. Benjamin C. Lockwood, The invited guests were Mrs. Frederick Dem, Mrs. Thomas Kearns, Mrs. Russell G. Schuller, Mrs. Joseph Gallagher, Mrs. Benjamin Lockwood, Mrs. W. F. The Keynote of the new and greater Delineator for November is Novelty.

In its Fashions the new order of things is evidenced on every page; in its illustrations of the present and coming Styles, Novelty of treatment lends much to the temptations of the modes themselves. 64 pages of the New Things from Paris, from New York, from wherever can be gathered the season's newest and best creations.

Speaking in pages may not mean much to you. A better way to realize the bigness of the November Delineator is to know that it contains more pages devoted to fashions and dress topics than any two other magazines.

Helen Berkeley-Loyd and M. Edouard La Fontaine, writing exclusively for this magazine, contribute papers this month that every woman in the land will wish to read—the real news of woman's dress; the final word of authority on what is to be during the coming months, which is awaited with eagerness each season by every woman who cares for her appearance.

Then the color printing—a feature that is practically exclusive with The Delineator—for while one or two other publications print a few pages with an added color, this number contains 21 pages in color in addition to the regular full-color plates of fashions.

The Delineator has always given the most in quality and in quantity for its subscription price—it is now giving more—much more—than ever before.

Practically everything in this number is new—excepting its good old name. Besides the Fashions and the Household Departments, which have made The Delineator famous; besides its Children's Magazine, which is beyond comparison; besides its many special articles of helpfulness and interest, one great feature deserves the attention of every thinking woman and man:

It is nearly two years now since The Delineator began its investigation of the Pure Food Question—the most thorough searching for facts, the most careful analysis of products ever conducted. Supplementing the work of the Government's experts, The Delineator has gone much further by establishing its own board of examiners and specialists who are investigating the different value of food products and beverages, their chemical analysis and correct or fictitious labeling.

The results obtained by this department or laboratory enable the housekeeper to quickly and accurately decide for herself what is safe and wholesome food for daily home consumption.

Readers of The Delineator have been regularly supplied with timely and most interesting articles on the subject. Among these is the series now running in each issue, entitled "Safe Foods and How to Get Them," written by that well-known authority, Mary Hinman Abel. In the November number the author treats of "Official Milk Inspection." The article is well illustrated by pictures and diagrams. If you want to know how a billion gallons of milk are treated annually in this country, Mrs. Abel's article will inform you.

These specially prepared articles are to be a regular feature of The Delineator, and will contain, in part, some of the results of the investigations now carried on by the business department.

That The Delineator has become an authority on the Food Question, all the world knows. No better evidence of this could be found than in the fact that it is frequently and favorably quoted. This, then, is another evidence—were one needed—of the great value of The Delineator to the American housekeeper, not only in the protection of her health, but to her material comfort as well.
